Bible Reading Schedule

A guide for systematic Bible reading

How to use this schedule:

To read through the Bible in one year, follow both the Old Testament and New Testament readings. If you wish to go more slowly and read the Bible in two years, you can follow the Old Testament reading on one day and the New Testament reading on the next day.

"Never let good books take the place of the Bible. Drink from the Well, not from the streams that flow from the Well" --Amy Carmichael.

J. Wilbur Chapman's Rules

1. STUDY IT THOROUGH. Never begin a day without mastering a verse from its pages.
2. PRAY IT IN. Never lay aside your Bible until the verse, or passage you have studied, has become a part of your being.
3. PUT IT DOWN. The thoughts that God gives you, put in the margin of your Bible or in your notebook.
4. WORK IT OUT. Live the truth you get in the morning through each hour of the day.
5. PASS IT ON. Seek to tell someone else what you have learned.

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God" (Matthew 4:4).

"THUS ON THY HOLY WORD, WE'D LIVE AND FEED AND GROW. GO ON TO KNOW THE LORD, AND PRACTICE WHAT WE KNOW!"

It's not how much of God's Word you go through that counts, but how much of God's Word goes through you!

Questions for Study of Bible Chapters:

1. What is the principle subject of this chapter? 2. What is the leading lesson of this chapter? 3. What is the key verse in this chapter? 4. Who are the principal persons in this chapter? 5. What does the chapter teach concerning Christ? 6. Is there, in this chapter, any example for me to follow? 7. Is there, in this chapter, any error or sin for me to avoid? 8. Is there, in this chapter, any duty for me to perform? 9. Is there, in this chapter, any promise for me to claim? 10. Is there, in this chapter, any prayer for me to echo?

Be sure to read God's Word PRAYERFULLY (Psalm 25:4-5; Psalm 119:18), REGULARLY (Matthew 4:4; Job 23:12), SLOWLY (1 Cor. 14:19), CAREFULLY (John 5:39), SYSTEMATICALLY (1 Cor. 14:40), INQUISITIVELY (asking questions such as those given above), LOVINGLY (Psalm 119:97), REVERENTLY (Isaiah 66:2), BELIEVINGLY (Heb. 4:2), OBEDIENTLY (Revelation 1:3; 22:7, 14; James 1:22).

Johann Bengel's 3 Rules for Bible Study:

- 1) Let the Bible be your source—not books, not great men, not public opinion, but only and alone the whole Bible. 2) Read nothing into the Bible; this shows an unbiased and childlike way of studying Scriptures [just let the Word say what it says]. 3) Do not ignore anything in the Bible, for all Scripture is given by inspiration of God (2 Tim. 3:16).

"I am standing on the Word of God,

"Tis full of life divine;

God's Spirit lives in ev'ry word

And moves in ev'ry line. —E.M. Wadsworth

Martin Luther said that he studied the Bible as he gathered apples. First, he shook the whole tree, that the ripest might fall; then he climbed the tree and shook each limb; and then when he had shaken each limb, he shook every branch. After that he examined every twig, and looked under every leaf. In other words, search the Bible as a whole, study each book, then study each chapter, study each verse, and finally study each word!
