

Assembling with the Saints to Meet with Our Living Lord

Acts 2:41-47

A Christian had been neglecting the weekly prayer meeting service. He was visited by a humble friend who sought to bring before him the truth of the Word, “Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching” (Heb. 10:25). This concerned believer went to the fireplace where the embers were glowing brightly on the hearth, took a live coal and set it in a place off by itself. Together they watched as it changed from the red glow to a cold, black mass. The backslidden Christian responded with the remark, “You need not say another word, brother. I’ll be at Bible Study and Prayer Meeting on Wednesday evening!”

C. H. Mackintosh stated:

“Of the many favors conferred upon us by our ever-gracious Lord, one of the very highest is the privilege of being present in the assembly of His beloved people, where He has recorded His Name. We may assert with all possible confidence that every true lover of Christ will delight to be where He has promised to be. Whatever may be the special character of the meeting; whether it be round the Lord’s table, to show forth His death; or round the Word, to learn His mind; or round the mercy-seat, to tell Him our need, and draw from His exhaustless treasury, every devoted heart will long to be there: and we may rest assured that anyone who wilfully neglects the assembly is in a cold, dead, dangerous state of soul. To neglect the assembling of ourselves is to take the first step on the inclined plane that leads down to the total abandonment of Christ and His precious interests.”

Being with God’s people under the ministry of the Word is both a privilege and a delight!

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org

Assembling with the Saints to Meet with Our Living Lord

Acts 2:41-47

A Christian had been neglecting the weekly prayer meeting service. He was visited by a humble friend who sought to bring before him the truth of the Word, “Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching” (Heb. 10:25). This concerned believer went to the fireplace where the embers were glowing brightly on the hearth, took a live coal and set it in a place off by itself. Together they watched as it changed from the red glow to a cold, black mass. The backslidden Christian responded with the remark, “You need not say another word, brother. I’ll be at Bible Study and Prayer Meeting on Wednesday evening!”

C. H. Mackintosh stated:

“Of the many favors conferred upon us by our ever-gracious Lord, one of the very highest is the privilege of being present in the assembly of His beloved people, where He has recorded His Name. We may assert with all possible confidence that every true lover of Christ will delight to be where He has promised to be. Whatever may be the special character of the meeting; whether it be round the Lord’s table, to show forth His death; or round the Word, to learn His mind; or round the mercy-seat, to tell Him our need, and draw from His exhaustless treasury, every devoted heart will long to be there: and we may rest assured that anyone who wilfully neglects the assembly is in a cold, dead, dangerous state of soul. To neglect the assembling of ourselves is to take the first step on the inclined plane that leads down to the total abandonment of Christ and His precious interests.”

Being with God’s people under the ministry of the Word is both a privilege and a delight!

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org

