

Ronald Reagan Seeking to Help His Dying Father-In-Law

Acts 17:22-34

In 2018 a letter written by President Ronald Reagan was discovered by columnist Karen Tumulty. It was written in 1982 to his atheist father-in-law, Loyal Davis, who was on his deathbed. The following portion of this letter reveals what our former President thought about the Lord Jesus Christ:*

“Loyal I know of your feeling — your doubt, but could I just impose on you a little longer? Some seven hundred years before the birth of Christ the ancient Jewish prophets predicted the coming of a Messiah....All in all there were a total of one hundred and twenty three specific prophesies about his life all of which came true. Crucifixion was unknown in those times, yet it was foretold that he would be nailed to a cross of wood. And one of the predictions was that he would be born of a Virgin. Now I know that is probably the hardest for you as a Dr. to accept. The only answer that can be given is — a miracle. But Loyal I don’t find that as great a miracle as the actual history of his life. Either he was who he said he was or he was the greatest faker and charlatan who ever lived. But would a liar and faker suffer the death he did when all he had to do to save himself was admit he’d been lying?....But for two thousand years he has had more impact on the world than all the teachers, scientists, emperors, generals and admirals who ever lived, all put together. The apostle John said, “[quotes John 3:16].”We’ve been promised this is only a part of life and that a greater life, a greater glory awaits us. It awaits you together one day and all that is required is that you believe and tell God you put yourself in his hands. Love Ronnie.”

www.washingtonpost.com 9-14-2018*

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org

Ronald Reagan Seeking to Help His Dying Father-In-Law

Acts 17:22-34

In 2018 a letter written by President Ronald Reagan was discovered by columnist Karen Tumulty. It was written in 1982 to his atheist father-in-law, Loyal Davis, who was on his deathbed. The following portion of this letter reveals what our

former President thought about the Lord Jesus Christ:*

“Loyal I know of your feeling — your doubt, but could I just impose on you a little longer? Some seven hundred years before the birth of Christ the ancient Jewish prophets predicted the coming of a Messiah....All in all there were a total of one hundred and twenty three specific prophesies about his life all of which came true. Crucifixion was unknown in those times, yet it was foretold that he would be nailed to a cross of wood. And one of the predictions was that he would be born of a Virgin. Now I know that is probably the hardest for you as a Dr. to accept. The only answer that can be given is — a miracle. But Loyal I don’t find that as great a miracle as the actual history of his life. Either he was who he said he was or he was the greatest faker and charlatan who ever lived. But would a liar and faker suffer the death he did when all he had to do to save himself was admit he’d been lying?....But for two thousand years he has had more impact on the world than all the teachers, scientists, emperors, generals and admirals who ever lived, all put together. The apostle John said, “[quotes John 3:16].”We’ve been promised this is only a part of life and that a greater life, a greater glory awaits us. It awaits you together one day and all that is required is that you believe and tell God you put yourself in his hands. Love Ronnie.”

www.washingtonpost.com 9-14-2018*

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org