

Does Jesus Care?

Matthew 10:28-39

“Casting all your care [anxiety, worry] upon Him [the living God, your Saviour and Helper and Comforter] because He cares for you” (1 Pet. 5:6-7). It matters to Him about you. You matter to Him because He cares so much, and He will never stop caring. When, then, should we worry?

“When we see the lilies spinning in distress, taking thought to manufacture loveliness, when we see the birds all building barns for store, ’twill be time for us to worry—Not before!”

Our Lord said, “The very hairs of your head are numbered.” A person with a full head of hair has about 100,000 strands, more or less. We may not care about such things, but God has numbered them and has the exact count. Our Lord is intimately involved with every detail of our lives, even down to the very minutest matters. Not only does He know every hair, but He knows every tear, every heartache, every heartbreak, every sorrow, every trial, every fear, every temptation, every pain, every hurt. Our Saviour sees and He cares. God cares for us so much that He already has solved our biggest problem, which is how a hell-deserving, wicked, wretched, wayward sinner can stand before a holy and righteous God. Because of Calvary, God was able to justify the ungodly (Rom. 4:5) and solve our biggest problem. If God cared enough about us to solve our biggest problem, cannot He handle everything else? As you face great trials, what will your attitude be towards God’s care?

The hymn writer asked the question, “Does Jesus care?” The disciples cried, “Carest thou not that we perish?” Does He really care? “I think He cares. I hope He cares.” —Away with such uncertainty!

“Yes, He cares! I know He cares! His heart is touched with my grief...I know my Saviour cares!”

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org

Does Jesus Care?

Matthew 10:28-39

“Casting all your care [anxiety, worry] upon Him [the living God, your Saviour and Helper and Comforter] because He cares for you” (1 Pet. 5:6-7). It matters to Him about you. You matter to Him because He cares so much, and He will never stop caring. When, then, should we worry?

“When we see the lilies spinning in distress, taking thought to manufacture loveliness, when we see the birds all building barns for store, ’twill be time for us to worry—Not before!”

Our Lord said, “The very hairs of your head are numbered.” A person with a full head of hair has about 100,000 strands, more or less. We may not care about such things, but God has numbered them and has the exact count. Our Lord is intimately involved with every detail of our lives, even down to the very minutest matters. Not only does He know every hair, but He knows every tear, every heartache, every heartbreak, every sorrow, every trial, every fear, every temptation, every pain, every hurt. Our Saviour sees and He cares. God cares for us so much that He already has solved our biggest problem, which is how a hell-deserving, wicked, wretched, wayward sinner can stand before a holy and righteous God. Because of Calvary, God was able to justify the ungodly (Rom. 4:5) and solve our biggest problem. If God cared enough about us to solve our biggest problem, cannot He handle everything else? As you face great trials, what will your attitude be towards God’s care?

The hymn writer asked the question, “Does Jesus care?” The disciples cried, “Carest thou not that we perish?” Does He really care? “I think He cares. I hope He cares.” —Away with such uncertainty!

“Yes, He cares! I know He cares! His heart is touched with my grief...I know my Saviour cares!”

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org

