

What God Hath Defined, Let Not Man Redefine

Matthew 19:3-12

In Matthew 19:5-6, our Lord Jesus Christ Himself showed that God clearly defined marriage as a union between a man and a woman, citing Genesis (1:27; 2:23-24). Noah Webster, the father of the English Dictionary, reaffirmed God's definition: "Marriage: The act of uniting a man and woman for life; Marriage was instituted by God Himself..."(1828). Human judges and politicians have no authority to change God's definition of marriage. In today's godless society, God's rules are being totally disregarded, as men proudly display their disregard for God's authority.

When the Supreme Court made its fateful decision to set aside the Divine institution of marriage (2015), the homosexual community celebrated, and the President joined in by lighting up the White House in brilliant rainbow colors. God's rainbow was turned into a gay pride flag or LGBTQ pride flag, a symbol of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender rebellion.

Think for a moment of the significance of the rainbow. After God judged the entire world because of its sins, He made a covenant with man and promised that He would never flood the earth again with a worldwide deluge. God gave the rainbow as a sign of that merciful covenant. But now, rebellious men have taken the sign of God's mercy and made it the emblem of their sin. It's as if they are saying, "God, we don't care about Your laws and Your Word; we don't care about Your institution of marriage as You created it, nor do we care about Your judgment. We are going to do what we want to do."

One person has said it this way: "So you're taking God's symbol from the time He destroyed the earth, and you are waving it around in His face as the symbol of your sin. Please excuse me while I take shelter!"

How can God bless America if Americans refuse to bless God?
