

How Important is Keeping Our Word?

Romans 4:16-25

When God promises to do something, we can count on it. All of God's promises are "Yes" and "Amen" (2 Cor. 1:20). God is faithful, dependable and trustworthy. He keeps His Word always. "God is not a man, that He should lie; neither the son of man, that He should repent: hath He said, and shall He not do it? or hath He spoken, and shall He not make it good?" (Num. 23:19).

Our promise-keeping God has bound Himself to the nation Israel by way of His covenants. The future and survival of Israel depends upon God keeping His Word. As long as the sun, moon and stars keep shining and the waves keep crashing against the shore, Israel's future is secure (Jer. 31:35-36). As long as man fails to measure the heavens and fails to search out the earth beneath, Israel's future is bright (Jer. 31:37).

Of all the things God has promised, not one promise has failed (Josh. 23:14). His promises either have already been fulfilled or will be fulfilled in the future. It is a sure thing!

What about us? As imitators of God (Eph. 5:1), do we make every effort to keep our word and fulfill our promises? When we give someone our word, does he know it will be done? Obviously we do not control all circumstances as God does, and sometimes things happen beyond our control which make it impossible to do what we said we would do.

Normally, however, promises are broken due to carelessness, wrong priorities, forgetfulness, laziness or some other inexcusable reason. When we say we are going to do something, how important is it to us to fulfill our pledge? How much are we bothered when we fail to keep our word?

May we be men and women of our word, even as our faithful God keeps His Word!

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org

How Important is Keeping Our Word?

Romans 4:16-25

When God promises to do something, we can count on it. All of God's promises are "Yes" and "Amen" (2 Cor. 1:20). God is faithful, dependable and trustworthy. He keeps His Word always. "God is not a man, that He should lie; neither the son of man, that He should repent: hath He said, and shall He not do it? or hath He spoken, and shall He not make it good?" (Num. 23:19).

Our promise-keeping God has bound Himself to the nation Israel by way of His covenants. The future and survival of Israel depends upon God keeping His Word. As long as the sun, moon and stars keep shining and the waves keep crashing against the shore, Israel's future is secure (Jer. 31:35-36). As long as man fails to measure the heavens and fails to search out the earth beneath, Israel's future is bright (Jer. 31:37).

Of all the things God has promised, not one promise has failed (Josh. 23:14). His promises either have already been fulfilled or will be fulfilled in the future. It is a sure thing!

What about us? As imitators of God (Eph. 5:1), do we make every effort to keep our word and fulfill our promises? When we give someone our word, does he know it will be done? Obviously we do not control all circumstances as God does, and sometimes things happen beyond our control which make it impossible to do what we said we would do.

Normally, however, promises are broken due to carelessness, wrong priorities, forgetfulness, laziness or some other inexcusable reason. When we say we are going to do something, how important is it to us to fulfill our pledge? How much are we bothered when we fail to keep our word?

May we be men and women of our word, even as our faithful God keeps His Word!

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org