

Psalm 86:1-10

It's one thing to come to church; it's another thing to come to God in true worship (John 4:23-24; Heb. 11:6).

It's one thing to sit in the pew; it's another thing to sit reverently at the feet of Jesus (Luke 10:39). It's one thing to be silent; it's another thing to be still and know that He is God

(Psalm 46:10). It's one thing to sing the Doxology; it's another thing to desire naught but God's glory from the heart (Rom. 15:6). It's one thing to bow my head in prayer; it's another thing to fervently and silently pray with the one leading in prayer (1 Cor. 14:15). It's one thing to sing a hymn; it's another thing to make melody in my heart to the Lord (Eph. 5:19). It's one thing to read the Scriptures; it's another thing to tremble at God's Word, holding the highest respect and awe for what God has said (Isa. 66:2). It's one thing to give my offering envelope; it's another thing to give myself (2 Cor. 8:5). It's one thing to listen to the choir; it's another thing to let the words of the anthem deeply grip my heart (Col. 3:16). It's one thing to open God's Word; it's another thing to let God's Word open and expose me (Heb. 4:12-13). It's one thing to hear God's Word; it's another thing to heed God's Word and do what it says (James 1:22). It's one thing to hear a sermon for an hour or less; it's another thing to implement that sermon all the hours of the week (Luke 8:21). It's one thing to shake someone's hand; it's another thing to manifest a fervent love for the brethren (1 Pet. 1:22). It's one thing to offer God lip service, going through the motions; it's another thing to serve and worship Him from the heart (Mark 7:6).
