

What God's Creation Means to Me Personally

Psalms 95

- 1. Nothing is too hard for the Creator. “Ah Lord GOD! Behold, Thou hast made the heaven and the earth by Thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for Thee” (Jer. 32:17). The God who did the greater can certainly do the lesser! The fact that He could create the heavens and the earth proves that there is no problem or difficulty which God cannot handle.
- 2. The Creator is my Helper. “My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth” (Psalms 121:2). “Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth” (Psalms 124:8). How wonderful to think that the Almighty Creator is my personal Helper amidst my daily challenges!
- 3. All people are on equal footing before the Creator. “The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the Maker of them all.” In these days when there is much divisiveness over race and social status, it’s helpful to remember that every human is a special creation of God put on this planet for His pleasure and will (Rev. 4:11).
- 4. The Creator determined my gender. “He which made them at the beginning made them male and female” (Matt. 19:4), and in doing so, the Creator did not make a mistake!
- 5. When I suffer for Christ, I can commit the keeping of my soul to my faithful Creator (1 Pet. 4:19).
- 6. May I never forget my Creator. “And forgettest the LORD thy Maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth?” (Isa. 51:13) This was the great sin described in Romans 1 of worshiping and serving the creature instead of the Creator (Rom. 1:25). How I need to remember my Creator whether I am young or old (Eccl. 12:1)! The Creator demands and deserves my worship (Psalms 95:6).
