

Not I, but Christ

Romans 6:1-11

BLESSED PARADOX—dead (“crucified with Him”), but alive (“Christ liveth in me”)!

Not the self life of the flesh, but the Saviour’s life by the Spirit (Rom. 8:2). Not I, but the grace of God which was with me (1 Cor. 15:10). Not “I will” (Isaiah 14:13-14), but Thy will be done (Luke 22:42). Not my working, but His working in me (Phil. 2:13). Not my filthy rags (Isa. 64:6), but the beauty of His righteousness (1 Cor. 1:30). Not the old man, corrupt according to the deceitful lusts (Eph. 4:22), but the new man created in righteousness and true holiness (Eph. 4:24). No longer living for myself, but now living for the One who died and rose again for me (2 Cor. 5:15). Not bearing the image of Adam but reflecting the image of Christ (1 Cor. 15:49). Not bound by sin, but set free by the Son (John 8:36).

Totally unable to please God in the flesh (Rom. 8:8), yet now no longer in the flesh but in the Spirit—the One who dwells in me (Rom. 8:9). Not walking in darkness, but having the light of life (John 8:12).

When I try, I fail (Rom. 7:18-19), but when I trust, He succeeds (Rom. 7:24-25). I am not self-sufficient, but my sufficiency is of God (2 Cor. 2:16; 3:5). “O our God...we have no might... neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon Thee” (2 Chron. 20:12). “For the battle is not yours, but God’s” (2 Chron. 20:15). My focus is not upon myself and my struggling, failing condition, but my focus is upon Christ—His glory, His finished work, His perfect redemption, and my new life in Him (2 Cor. 5:17). As I behold Christ in the Word, I will gradually be conformed to that very image (2 Cor. 3:18).
